

MAMU Exhibition of Rare Javanese wayang kulit at Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music's 50th Anniversary Reunion

Where: Music Auditorium, Building 68, 55 Scenic Boulevard, Monash University, Clayton Campus

When: 7pm, Monday 28th September 2015

Entry: $15/$10 (concession)

Bookings: www.monash.edu/mapa OR (03) 9905 1111

Program:

- Welcome by Head of School, Professor John Griffiths
- Javanese shadow-puppet theatre (wayang kulit) performance by guest puppet-master (dhalang), Dr Ki Joko Susilo (Otago University) with the Monash Gamelan Orchestra, founded in 1973
- Balinese mask dance (tari topeng arsa wijaya) by Dr Jonathan McIntosh (Monash University)
- 50th Anniversary reunion of Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music alumni and refreshments in the foyer
- Launch of the Music Archive of Monash University's (MAMU's) Exhibition of Rare Javanese Puppets by Dr Aline Scott-Maxwell

The exhibition includes some beautiful old puppets from various parts of Java that were donated to the Music Archive of Monash University (MAMU) in the 1970s by Australian collector and author Jeune Scott-Kemball, and some puppets from a wayang hiphop and a wayang kancil collection.

